The aim of RMGs is to develop the capacity of individuals in metrology. EURAMET provides Researcher Mobility Grants to increase the capability of the European metrology researcher community, by supporting countries in building and furthering their capacity in Metrology.